

Self Employed Quality Assurance Advisor

This is a fantastic opportunity for highly motivated individuals to be part of an established venture delivering quality assurance frameworks into high schools, vacancies nationwide.

Ideally suited to freelance education consultants looking for a new direction, candidates will be experienced at working with students within an educational environment.

In possession of either a D34 or A2 Internal Verification qualification or current Internal Qualification Assurance Certificate qualification achieved within last 3 years and experience of practising IV or IQA role within the same timeframe

Own reliable car and mobile phone are also essential. Enhanced CRB check will be required. References required.

Payment is £30 per hour on a self-employed basis.