

Picture Train Privacy Policy

We have set out the following Privacy Policy because your privacy is important to us. It explains how we collect, use, store and safeguard the information you provide us via the Picture Train website.

Picture Train reserves the right to modify this Privacy Policy at any time without prior notice. If you do not agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy, please do not use the website.

What information does Picture Train collect from us and how does Picture Train use this information?

To create an account, we collect your school name and address, email address, and a school representative's name and email address. You will then receive a password that you will need to gain access to our website. We will use this information to set up your account, to send you a registration confirmation email and to send you further information about our product or services.

We do not share this information with any other parties. When you place an order or renew your subscription your information will be requested again.

Our aim is to deliver an online resource, surveys, e-books, offers and promotions to people and organisations who we believe will find them of value. Our offers are developed and managed under strict conditions designed to safeguard the security and privacy of customer personal information.

With your consent, Picture Train may from time to time send commercial e-mails with additional offers and products. Picture Train is committed to ethical and responsible e-mail practices. Picture Train aims to ensure all commercial e-mails sent by Picture Train are compliant with current legislation in force concerning the use of commercial email.

The security of your personal information is important to us. We follow generally accepted industry standards to protect the personal information submitted to us, both during transmission and once we receive it. However, no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure. Therefore, while we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.
